

Parenting with Logic

PARENT LECTURES

Interactive, entertaining 1-1½ hour lectures with practical parenting tips and tricks. Parents will be engaged and uplifted knowing they can make a difference in their relationships with their children as soon as they walk out of the presentation.

Cost: $300/night

For Elementary School Parents

How to Get Your Kids to Listen

Similar lectures for two different age groups. Mary will incorporate age-appropriate examples depending on the audience.

For Middle & High School Parents

Communicating with Teens How, What & When?

- Learn how we currently talk to our kids - are we a helicopter, drill sergeant or a consultant? How do our behaviors affect our ability to communicate with them?
- What do we actually communicate when we are interacting with our children - competence or incompetence? Are we being helpful or interfering?
- When are the best times to communicate with our children? When can we up the odds that our efforts will really be heard and understood? When can we arrange for their brains to be ready to listen to us?

For Elementary & Middle School Parents

Screen Time Battles: How to Avoid Them

- What is driving our kids to electronics? Why should we be worried?
- Learn how to set up good, healthy electronic habits in your home to avoid the 'Technology Monster' that comes in middle and high school
- How to talk to your kids in age-appropriate ways about technology; how to set limits without scaring them
